1 Introduction:
- Poland's rise of prejudice against the LGBTQ+ community
- Declaration of "LGBT-ideology free" zones
- Danger towards LGBTQ+ rights and safety
- European Union cutting off funding
- European Parliament declaring the EU a "LGBTIQ Freedom Zone"

2 Objectives:
- Analyze the ongoing dispute
- How anti-LGBTQ laws are impacting Poland
- What to look out for from a business perspective
- Consider potential outcomes

3 Body:
- Current Polish government using the LGBTQ+ community as a scapegoat
- Anti-LGBTQ rhetoric found in the government and on the streets
- LGBTQ+ people being beaten in public
- Anti-LGBTQ laws that have gone through and that are under consideration
- "LGBT-ideology free" towns losing funding

4 Significance:
- Be aware of the situation when engaging in Polish business interactions
- From a management position: the risk of safety
- Protection of employees
- Those looking to do business in the country may want to reconsider or wait
